

News from the Past The Stone Age in Zimbabwe

CONFERENCE
October 18 2022
8:45 – 15:45

IFAS-Research
Institut français d'Afrique du Sud, 1st floor
62 Juta street, Braamfontein

8:45 – 9:00

Sophie Dulucq (IFAS-Research)
Opening remarks.

9:00 – 9:15

Ancila Nhamo (University of Zimbabwe)
Keynote speech.

9:15 – 9:45

Ancila Nhamo (University of Zimbabwe)
Archaeological research in Zimbabwe: the past, present and future.

9:45 – 10:15

Camille Bourdier (Université de Toulouse – Jean Jaurès)
Presentation of a collective research: The beginning of rock art in Southern Africa. New insights from the Early Holocene at Pomongwe Cave.

10:15 – 11:00

Coffee & Tea break.

11:00 – 11:30

Jeremy Hollmann (Rock Art Research Institute, University of the Witwatersrand)
Observations on images of elephant in north eastern Zimbabwe.

11:30 – 12:00

Léa Jobard (Université de Toulouse – Jean Jaurès)

Symbolic landscape of the Later Stone Age hunter-gatherers in the Matobo Hills.

12:00 – 12:30

Seke Katsamudanga (University of Zimbabwe)

The rock art and Stone Age archaeology of south eastern Zimbabwe.

12:30 – 13:30

Lunch (buffet)

13:30 – 14:00

Raphaël Hanon (University of the Witwatersrand & Musée de l'Homme)

HOPE.Z project: In search for Plio-Pleistocene deposits.

14:00 – 14:30

Thubelihle Mnkandla (University of Zimbabwe)

A reconstruction of palaeoenvironmental conditions in Matobo World Heritage Landscape: A geoarchaeological perspective.

14:30 – 15:00

Aurore Val (Universidade do Algarve)

Animal resources in human subsistence in the Matobos from the Pleistocene to the Holocene: a review of existing data and future research perspectives.

15:00 – 15:30

Precious Maenzanise (University of Cape Town)

Morpho-functional variability of the late Holocene microlithic backed tools from Pomongwe Cave, Matobo (western Zimbabwe).

15:30 – 15:45

Closing remarks

Léa Jobard

The conference is hosted at the French Institute, 1st floor, 62 Juta Street, Braamfontein.

Please note that only registered participants will be allowed to join the conference, either online or in person.

RSVP before 17th to Monday, October marie.opplert@frenchinstitute.org.za

Zoom Link to the conference: <https://bit.ly/3DmCfwu>

Contacts

marie.opplert@frenchinstitute.org.za

sophie.dulucq@frenchinstitute.org.za

leajobard@yahoo.fr